Starting to learn Goodbye Pork Pie Hat. How hard could it be, I thought, but when it gets to the improve/solo section I just can get out what I want to play and struggle to play anything meaningful and fluid.

The melody at letter B and C is derived from the John Handy tenor sax solo on the Mingus, Ah, Um album from 1959.

Was just listening to Ken Burns' CD on Mingus - specifically Goodbye Pork Pie Hat. The tenor solo is just amazing. I'm wondering who plays it. Possible choices are: Booker Ervin, Bobby Jones, or Rahsaan Roland Kirk.
