A three-day lesson guided reading lesson plan comes in handy, especially in second grade. Texts in levels K, L, and M start to get longer and more complex. If you implement a 3 day guided reading lesson plan, you'll have more time to let students read the text. Some other benefits of a three-day lesson plan are: exposure to a text more than once; more time to complete each element of guided reading

When your readers get to guided reading levels K-M in second grade, they are silently reading most of the time. We only want them to read aloud softly so that we can check in on them - think of it as a mini-conference. This means that monitoring comprehension is even more important than ever. We use these conversations to double-check and know if they are understanding what they are reading.
