IOSH is not the company it was a few years ago, and it has evolved into a more efficient, ambitious and productive organisation to work for. Through the changes that have been afoot over the last couple of years, it's never lost that warmth and friendliness that I think really sells IOSH as an employer.

Josh Hernandez has one goal. He needs to get a position in next year's surgical residency program at Genesee. If he loses that, he'll have to leave town and be separated from his daughter. He's on the right path until his brother, Dr. Evan Hernandez, is found dead. When the Medical Examiner labels the death a suicide, the police close the case. It's a decision that Josh cannot accept. As much for himself as for Evan, Josh goes searching for answers. What he discovers is a cover-up. Bringing it to light will surely cost him a spot in the residency program. But Josh refuses to back off and before he knows it he has put himself and those close to him in mortal danger.

Josh Crockett, a thirty-three-year-old psychologist and author, travels back home to Melo, Indiana, at the request of his high school best friend, Paul Palato. Having read Josh's book, Living Faith, Paul invites Josh to come for an extended visit and teach the church's youth the concepts found in the book. Because it is the church his father founded and where Josh grew up and because Paul is still one of his closest friends, Josh decides to answer Paul's invitation. Josh involves himself in the lives of several people in Melo, such as Marcy James, who has inherited several businesses in Melo, including the Riverbend Apartments where Josh and Marcy both reside. Their chance meeting and subsequent other meetings grow into a very strong bond of friendship. Desmond Niemeier, the head deacon at the church, believes Josh Crockett is too good to be true. He works to uncover dark secrets from Josh's past and exposes suspicious behavior, such as the hours Josh spends with Marcy since his return back to Melo, Indiana. Josh questions why God allows this to happen. He also struggles with whether his true feelings for Marcy James are love or physical attraction. Josh feels too that God is pulling him in two directions by giving him good opportunities to stay in Melo and equally noble motives to return to his home and practice in Corona, Florida. How will he know which is God's will? What is to become of Marcy and Josh?

Sarah often wondered if moving to New York City was the right thing to do. She knew she would of given up her love. After months then years not hearing from him she really wasn't sure, She began to think where was he... As time went on she hoped things would fall in place. Now she had a great job, a boyfriend and things seemed to be going ok Then the flashbacks would start, it seemed she will always be haunted by the past. She once again started thinking of him, the man she loved The relationship she was in didn't seem right to her, there was something wrong she just didn't know what... Then while on vacation things started changing, Stranded at a ski lodge in a snowstorm in Vermont, made her realize she was in for trouble... The bridge was out no phone service, and it continued to snow for days... She thought her mind was playing tricks on her... Then suddenly her fears became a reality...what was she going to do... Nobody around to help. Would she make it out of this alive?

A News Story tells of the time when TV news switched from being a money-losing public service to a highly successful money machine. Mitch Bellows and Anthony Hadde are news directors who provide a contrast in approach: Bellows is dedicated to truth and integrity-Hadde is motivated by power and greed. Ambition also drives some anchormen to achieve their goals, often at the expense of their core values. Others hold fast to high standards. It is impossible to tell which ones have integrity by watching them on the screen. Only by examining their off-camera behavior can the truth be uncovered. A News Story offers a revealing look behind the microphones and cameras of a TV news operation. The author has drawn on his own experiences while working in that industry, but it is not a roman à clef, even if some of the characters seem to be recognizable. A News Story is a fast-moving page-turner that Amanda Graham's world was destroyed by her parents' divorce. She left her friends and father in New York, moved to Florida, and entered a small, cliquy private school. In a misguided attempt to become popular, Amanda lied about one of her teachers. She found the friendship she had been seeking, but ultimately realized that that sort of friendship wasn't what she had been looking for, and it certainly wasn't worth the price she had to pay.

Those who have discovered and cultivate their imaginations explore endless galaxies, unending dimensions and timeless travels within their conscious awareness. These are those who have been chosen by the great HU to ride the waves of Light and Sound, aiding in the healing of His lower worlds of creation. Lord Region has passed all the tests. He has learned all the disciplines. He is ready to do battle with and ensnare the one that causes all the worlds to tremble. But, this servant of the God, Kal, is elusive and cunning. His intellect is genius. In this book is a tantalizing climax to a trilogy wherein Lord Region learns more about himself than even he wants to know. Your inner senses will come alive as you live this final episode. Within your mind's eye you will question, "Does this tale, in fact, actually relate to these times of terrorists and corrupted ethical concepts? Or is there an even deeper and greater meaning hidden in the wellspring of the telling?"
