Public Law And Political Theory [PDF, EPUB EBOOK]

Public law is important because of the unequal relationship between the government and the public. The government is the only body that can make decisions on the rights of individuals and they must act within the law. A citizen can ask for judicial review if they are unhappy with a decision of an authoritative body. Lawyers who are concerned with public law can specialise in various areas of law including constitutional/administrative law, tax law and criminal law.
