The Very Very Very Long Dog by Julia Patton is a cute book about a dog's adventures through town. Bartleby is a long, long, long dog who causes problems wherever he goes because he does not know where his hind end is. His friends try to calm everyone down and fix his problems but it can't always be done.

Although the solution to Bartleby the dog's dilemma might seem a bit temporary - given that he is a very, very, very long dog - it's still a cute gimmick that will work for younger readers as they imagine this lengthy, furry friend of theirs gallivanting around the city. Long on cuteness and brief enough to make the most of its impact, The Very Very Very Long Dog is a lovely bit of fun.
